

Autism Education Trust Tier 2: Good Autism practice

Woodfield teaching school is pleased to be a licenced hub of the Autism Education Trust. The AET is a programme supported by the Department for Education, which offers nationally delivered face-to-face training for professionals working across all education settings.

Course Outline

This course will provide practical knowledge, hands-on tool and techniques for all practitioners working directly with school- aged pupils on the autism spectrum, in both mainstream and specialist services, to develop practice.

The training will:

- Enable practitioners to develop their knowledge and understanding of good autism practice
- Provide guidelines and activities to support practitioners to reflect on and improve their own practice.

The training uses a range of teaching tools including video, case studies, problem-solving scenarios, presentations and practical resources and activities.
